

Tri-Cities 10 by 10 Challenge

Win two entries to the Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce Annual Golf Tournament

Your Tri-Cities 10 by 10 Challenge wants to help your business and your golf swing!

The Tri-Cities 10 by 10 Initiative challenges you to become Disability Confident. How can you make your business a more inclusive place to work?

As one of the Chamber's initiatives, the Tri-Cities 10 by 10 Challenge serves as a resource for members to learn more about how to become Disability Confident.

Find out more about how your business can take advantage of the Tri-Cities 10 by 10 Challenge to:

- Hire and retain qualified talent
- Tap into a market with over 25 million in spending power in the country
- Show leadership in an inclusive community
- Publicise your success story and share it with the community

Let the GAMES
Begin!

Did you know?

- Persons with disabilities have similar educational backgrounds as those without, including trades and college certificates and university degrees
- Persons with disabilities represent over 25 million in spending power in Canada
- British Columbians with disabilities make up a talent pool of 300,000 working age persons
- The job performance of persons with disabilities meets or exceeds that of employees without disabilities

Contact Karen at the Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce today for more information and you could win two entries to Annual Chamber Golf Tournament on May 14th, 2009.

Contest ends May 7th, 2009.

604.464.2716

kcheung@tricitiechamber.com

The Tri-Cities 10 by 10 Challenge is brought to you by:

Douglas College

POLARIS
Employment Services Society

vancouver foundation